

US HISTORY

LESSON SEVEN

Name: _____

Date: _____

QUESTIONS

1. What was the name of the first written document that limited the king's power in England?
 - a) Magna Carta
 - b) 1100 Charter of Liberty
 - c) Petition of Right
 - d) English Bill of Rights
2. Who was the king known for excessive taxation and cruelty, associated with the Robin Hood stories?
 - a) William I
 - b) Henry I
 - c) John
 - d) Charles I
3. What document, created in 1215, established a committee to represent the people in the king's court?
 - a) 1100 Charter of Liberty
 - b) Magna Carta
 - c) Petition of Right
 - d) Grand Remonstrance
4. What did King Charles I call his tax to avoid using the word "tax"?
 - a) Fee
 - b) Loan
 - c) Contribution
 - d) Donation
5. Which document, created in 1628, listed grievances against the king's violations of previous agreements?
 - a) Magna Carta
 - b) Grand Remonstrance
 - c) Petition of Right
 - d) English Bill of Rights

US HISTORY

LESSON SEVEN

QUESTIONS

6. What was the name of the rebellion against King James II in 1688?
 - a) The Great Rebellion
 - b) The English Civil War
 - c) The Glorious Revolution
 - d) The Bishops' War

7. What principle did the lesson say originated from the 1100 Charter of Liberty?
 - a) Freedom of speech
 - b) Right to bear arms
 - c) Separation of church and state
 - d) Right to a fair trial

8. According to the lesson, what is the difference between liberty and freedom?
 - a) They are the same thing
 - b) Liberty is freedom plus morality
 - c) Freedom is more restrictive than liberty
 - d) Liberty only applies to governments

9. What legal concept, mentioned in the lesson, allows juries to find defendants not guilty if they believe a law is unjust?
 - a) Jury selection
 - b) Jury nullification
 - c) Jury deliberation
 - d) Jury sequestration

10. What type of government did the founders establish, according to the lesson?
 - a) Democracy
 - b) Monarchy
 - c) Oligarchy
 - d) Constitutional republic

US HISTORY

LESSON SEVEN

Essay.

1. Explain the progression of limiting the king's power from the 1100 Charter of Liberty to the Magna Carta. How did these documents contribute to the development of representative government?
2. Discuss the concept of "separation of church and state" as presented in the lesson. How does this historical understanding differ from modern interpretations, and why is this difference significant?
3. Analyze the tactics used by kings William I, Charles I, and James II to expand their power. How did the people respond to these tactics, and what documents resulted from these conflicts?
4. Explain the importance of written documents in the development of English and American liberty. How did having promises and rights in writing affect the people's ability to resist oppressive governments?
5. Compare and contrast the concepts of liberty and freedom as described in the lesson. How does this distinction relate to the idea of a constitutional republic versus a democracy?

US HISTORY

LESSON SEVEN

Quiz Answers

