

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

LESSON 18

Name: _____

Date: _____

Multiple Choice Questions

- According to Article 4 of the Articles of Confederation, what are the people of each state entitled to?
 - A) The ability to bypass state laws
 - B) The right to own property in any state
 - C) The same privileges and immunities as free citizens in other states
 - D) The right to vote in any state
- What does Article 4 of the Articles of Confederation ensure regarding the movement of individuals between states?
 - A) Individuals must have a passport to travel between states
 - B) States can impose taxes on personal property being transported across state lines
 - C) Individuals can freely move between states without restrictions
 - D) States can charge a toll for interstate travel
- Which group is excluded from the privileges and immunities of free citizens under Article 4?
 - A) Traders
 - B) Soldiers
 - C) Paupers, vagabonds, and fugitives from justice
 - D) Taxpayers
- What does the "Full Faith and Credit" clause under Article 4 require from states?
 - A) To honor debts between citizens of different states
 - B) To respect the laws and judicial decisions of other states
 - C) To pay taxes equally across all states
 - D) To share military resources between states
- What was one of the main economic problems that led to dissatisfaction with the Articles of Confederation?
 - A) States could not impose taxes
 - B) The central government imposed unequal import taxes
 - C) States were unable to trade freely with foreign countries
 - D) The central government could tax personal property freely

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

LESSON 18

6. *What does Article 5 of the Articles of Confederation say about how many delegates each state may send to Congress?

- A) Each state can send as many delegates as it wishes
- B) No state can be represented by fewer than 2 or more than 7 delegates
- C) Each state must send exactly 7 delegates
- D) Delegates are chosen directly by the people

7. *How often must states appoint delegates to Congress according to Article 5?

- A) Every two years
- B) Every four years
- C) Annually
- D) Every six years

8. *What authority does Article 6 of the Articles of Confederation grant Congress in terms of foreign diplomacy?

- A) Congress can send and receive ambassadors without state approval
- B) States are free to form their own foreign alliances
- C) Only Congress can manage foreign relations and enter into treaties
- D) States must seek Congress's approval for commercial treaties

9. *According to Article 6, under what condition can a state engage in war without Congress's approval?

- A) If the state is attacked by pirates
- B) If the state is actually invaded by enemies
- C) If the state is economically threatened
- D) If Congress fails to meet within one year

10. *What does Article 6 of the Articles of Confederation say about states maintaining military forces during peacetime?

- A) States can maintain any number of forces they deem necessary
- B) Only a regulated militia may be kept, subject to Congressional oversight
- C) States are required to maintain a standing army
- D) No military forces are allowed during peacetime

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

LESSON 18

Answer Key

1. C - The same privileges and immunities as free citizens in other states.
2. C - Individuals can freely move between states without restrictions.
3. C - Paupers, vagabonds, and fugitives from justice.
4. B - To respect the laws and judicial decisions of other states.
5. B - The central government imposed unequal import taxes.
6. B - No state can be represented by fewer than 2 or more than 7 delegates.
7. C - Annually.
8. C - Only Congress can manage foreign relations and enter into treaties.
9. B - If the state is actually invaded by enemies.
10. B - Only a regulated militia may be kept, subject to Congressional oversight.